

Library and Knowledge Services Newsletter

Issue 15 | March/April 2023

Our newsletter will keep you up to date with new resources and service developments as well as news from our team members.

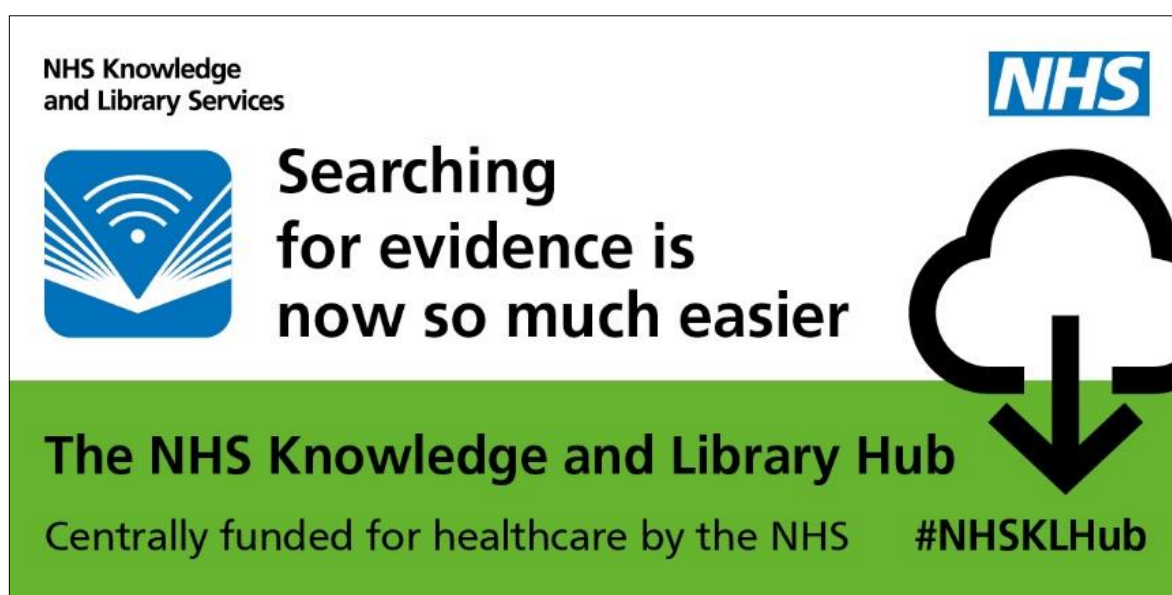

NHS Knowledge and Library Hub

The NHS Knowledge and Library Hub connects NHS staff and learners to high quality knowledge and evidence resources in one place.

Funded by Health Education England, it includes access to a variety of resources (e.g. journals, books, databases, BMJ Best Practice).

For quick links to the Hub go to: <https://www.nhslincslibrary.uk/knowledge-and-library-hub/>

Full access is free to all NHS staff and learners with a NHS OpenAthens account. If you need to register for an OpenAthens account go to: <https://openathens.nice.org.uk/>

Congratulations Katie!

We are very proud to announce that our Library & Information Advisor Katie Smith has been announced as one of the Train Together Apprentices of the Year 2023!

Katie joined Train Together and ULHT as an apprentice on the Library, Information and Archive programme in November 2021.

Her work is always of a high standard and she actively takes part in continuous professional development in her role.

We are all very proud of her and the amazing work she does!

LGBTQ+ History Month

We observed February's LGBTQ+ History Month in the Knowledge, Learning and Resources Hub at Lincoln.

Katie created a display of books either written by LGBTQ+ authors or that include LGBTQ+ characters and stories.

All of these books are available to borrow 24/7 – you just need to add your details and details of the book(s) you are borrowing to the green notebook.

Books are also available to borrow at Grantham and Pilgrim libraries.

If you are interested in joining the PRIDE+ staff network at ULHT go to: <https://lincshealthandcare.sharepoint.com/sites/PRIDEPlusStaffNetwork>

If you are interested in joining the LCHS or LPFT Trust PRIDE+ staff network contact your local Equality, Diversity & Inclusion colleagues.

A selection of comments we received from our latest survey and our answers to them.

The library mostly holds books for clinical staff	We have a broad range of books in our collection including leadership and management books. You can browse our catalogue to see if the book you would like is available. We can request books for you to borrow from the British Library. We can also buy books to add to our collection.
The opening hours keep changing / short opening hours	All 3 of the library sites are available to access 24/7 with a valid ULHT badge. Please contact us if you are having trouble accessing any of the sites.
There are no print books at Lincoln.	You can browse our catalogue to see if the book you would like is available at another site. We can then bring it across to Lincoln for you to collect.
