

Library and Knowledge Services Impact Data April 2021 to March 2022

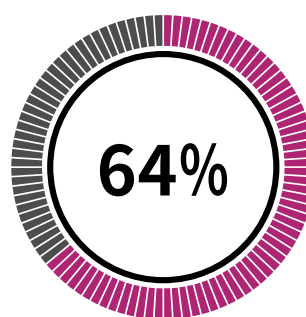

Feedback and impact data from literature searches and article requests have been collected. Surveys were emailed to staff from United Lincolnshire Hospitals NHS Trust.

2148

The number of journal article requests completed by our Library & Information Advisors

...of staff said that the article they requested had provided them with new knowledge.

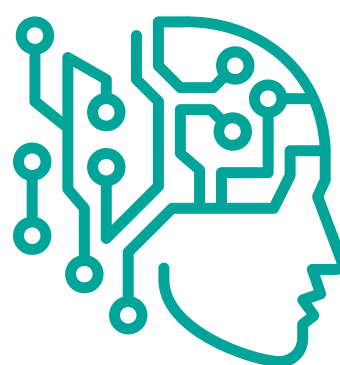

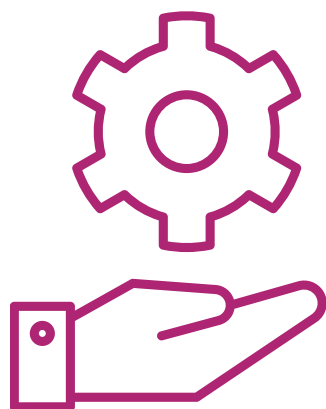

...of staff said that the article they requested had enhanced the quality of patient care.

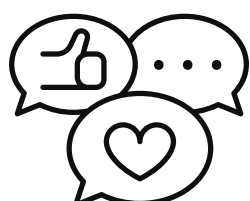

308

The number of literature searches completed by our Clinical Librarian team

56% of literature searches improved service development and/or delivery

88% of staff said that their literature search helped them to gain new knowledge.

"[I] find [searches] extremely valuable when preparing new guidelines..."

"Clearer understanding of new treatment."

"It [article request] has allowed me to teach others to ensure patient care."

For more information about our journal article request and literature search services go to:
www.nhslincslibrary.uk