

Library and Knowledge Services

Management Bulletin

January 2023

How to Obtain an Article

If you would like to request any articles included in this bulletin, or to be put onto the bulletin's distribution list, please contact Library and Knowledge Services at Pilgrim Hospital:

Tel: 01205 445272

email: library.pilgrim@ulh.nhs.uk

The links in blue are active please click on them to read the article.

Digital Technologies

The growing risk of cyber attacks in the NHS

Threats to cyber security are a significant and ever-present challenge in healthcare. In worst-case scenarios, healthcare services and patient care can be severely compromised.

British Journal of Healthcare Management Volume 29, Issue 1 pp. 5-7

Cyber attacks in healthcare: why they matter and how to defend against them

Professor Gérard Memmi, head of the computer sciences and networks department at Télécom Paris, highlights the potentially severe consequences of cyber attacks in healthcare, with recommendations of how to prevent data theft and reduce the damages of a data breach.

British Journal of Healthcare Management Volume 29, Issue 1 pp. 8-11

Health & Wellbeing

Using the NHS Health and Wellbeing Framework successfully

This report is designed to share learning with others who are considering using the HWB Framework in their healthcare settings, to improve the health and wellbeing of their workforce and create a culture of wellbeing.

NHS England, January 13th 2023

Integrated Care

Guidance on developing the joint forward plan

This guidance supports integrated care boards (ICBs) and their partner NHS trusts and foundation trusts (referred to collectively in this guidance as partner trusts) to develop their first 5-year joint forward plans (JFPs) with system partners.

NHS England, December 23rd 2022

Legal

Use of hospital and limitation directions under the Mental Health Act 1983

Richard Griffith, Senior Lecturer in Health Law at Swansea University, considers the use of hospital and limitation directions when sentencing a person with a mental disorder who has been found guilty of a crime.

British Journal of Nursing Vol. 32, No. 1 Jan 2023 pp. 38-39

Patient Safety

Reflecting on patient safety in 2022

John Tingle, Lecturer in Law, Birmingham Law School, University of Birmingham, discusses some major patient safety reports published in 2022, and considers the lessons to take away from them

British Journal of Nursing Vol. 32, No. 1 Jan 2023 pp. 40-41

The impact of reorganising NHS services on patient safety

<https://www.hsib.org.uk/news-and-events/the-impact-of-reorganising-nhs-services-on-patient-safety/>

Scott Hislop, Principal National Investigator, looks at the challenges faced by the NHS when flexing to meet demands and how to mitigate potential risks to patient safety.

HSIB, January 5th 2023

Reports

Assessing the burden of clinical documentation

Insights into the challenges associated with clinical documentation as perceived by Doctors, Nurses and Allied Health Professionals in NHS trusts.

<https://www.nuance.com/en-gb/healthcare/campaign/report/assessing-the-burden-of-clinical-documentation.html>

Nuance Communications, 2022

Health and Brexit: six years on

<https://www.nuffieldtrust.org.uk/research/health-and-brexit-six-years-on>

The latest instalment from our project monitoring the effects of the UK's exit from the EU on our health care system finds the clearest evidence yet that Brexit and its changing relationships with neighbouring countries are exacerbating the severe challenges facing health and social care in the UK today in terms of staffing, accessing essential medicines, and the overall economic picture.

Nuffield Trust, 19th December 2022

Workforce

Investing in Patient Safety and Outcomes

Addressing workforce shortages and ensuring that there are the right numbers of registered nurses and nursing staff with the right skills in the right place at the right time is vital to ensure everyone can access safe and effective health and care services. This report highlights how successive UK governments have failed to tackle the nursing workforce crisis and presents solutions for sustainable nursing recruitment and retention.

RCN, 01 November 2022

News

NHS cuts waiting lists as A&E departments busier than ever before

The NHS waiting list has fallen for the first time since the start of the pandemic while hospitals dealt with the highest ever number of A&E attendances last month, new figures show today.

NHS England January 12th 2023

Copyright

Copyright allows us to copy a maximum of two articles from any issue of a journal, unless it is a thematic issue, for any one individual.

We can only copy an article once for the same person. Please check to make sure you have not asked us for the article already.

Literature Searches

To request an in depth search on a specific subject contact: clinical.librarian@ulh.nhs.uk